DETROIT SUZUKI ACADEMY OF MUSIC 2023 IMPACT REPORT

What we do

The Detroit Suzuki Academy of Music provides low- and no-cost music classes in an after school setting. We aim to provide accessible, high quality music education. Our program is non-competitive and all students have access to a nurturing, holistic, and loving musical education regardless of income.

Who we are

The Detroit Suzuki Academy of Music is a non-profit 501c3 organization. We were founded in 2018 on the principles of love, justice, rigor, perseverance, and whole family involvement.

How we do it

Our partnerships with the public library systems mean that we can meet students and families in their own neighborhoods in a safe and trusted space. Students are able to sign out a violin much like they check out a library book.

"Detroit Suzuki Academy helped my son grow in his confidence, make great friendships and learn a new skill during a hard time.

We joined a year ago in the heart of the pandemic. It's been a joy to watch him learn and grow.... We're so glad to have the DSA in his life."
